

Privacy

In consideration of you viewing this website, you agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions:

Privacy Statement

Mercedes-Benz Australia/Pacific Pty Ltd ("MBAuP") respects privacy and personal information. Where MBAuP deals with your personal information, being an Australian company MBAuP is governed by and complies with the National Privacy Principles which are found in Schedule 3 of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (as amended from time to time). MBAuP collects and uses your information to provide information relating to our products and services that is relevant to your interests.

Information Collection and Use

- MBAuP collects personal information on this website for purposes that are made clear on the page on which the information is collected, such as when you request to be sent information.
- MBAuP does not collect and process any personal information unless the information is considered necessary for the effective functioning or activities of our business.
- Generally, MBAuP only processes personal information for the purposes for which it was originally collected, unless required or authorised by or under law or if the individual concerned has consented to the intended use. MBAuP destroys or permanently de-identifies personal information that is no longer needed.
- MBAuP does not collect and/or process any personal or sensitive information against the expressed wishes of an individual, unless MBAuP is required by law to do so.
- You have the right to remain anonymous when entering into transactions with MBAuP, unless such anonymity would be considered unlawful or impracticable.
- MBAuP does not use or pass onto others any personal information without the consent of the individual(s) concerned unless required by law. Nevertheless, MBAuP's third party service providers may occasionally have access to the personal information held by MBAuP under conditions of confidentiality.
- MBAuP takes steps to ensure that personal information is kept safe from misuse, loss and unauthorised access, modification and disclosure.
- MBAuP will not transfer personal information to a foreign country unless such a transfer is allowed by law.

Website privacy practices

- MBAuP sometimes uses cookie technology on this site in order to provide information and services to website visitors. Cookies are pieces of information that a website transfers to your computer's hard disk for record keeping purposes and are a necessary part of facilitating online transactions. Most web browsers are set to accept cookies. Cookies are useful to estimate our number of users and determine overall traffic patterns through our website.
- If you do not wish to receive any cookies you may set your browser to refuse cookies. This may mean you will not be able to take full advantage of the services available on our website.

Other Information Uses and Disclosure

- MBAuP may use information relating to your visit to our website, or information you provide to us, for market research purposes in order to continually improve the product and service that MBAuP delivers to you.
- On occasions, MBAuP may form relationships with other organisations, designed to bring you special offers or competitions, relevant to your preferences. MBAuP only deals with parties that demonstrate the same level of commitment to your privacy as MBAuP does, and can assure complete compliance with all Australian privacy laws.
- In the unlikely event that MBAuP sells a part or whole of its business, its records of personal information may be transferred to the new business owner. The information will remain subject to privacy law and until further notified, will remain subject to MBAuP's privacy policy. If at any stage you are receiving communications from MBAuP and you do not wish to receive any further communications, please let us know.

Further questions

At all times, MBAuP strives to ensure your personal information is treated confidentially, and in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). If you believe your personal information has been handled in a way that does not comply with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), or if you wish to access information that MBAuP holds about you, please contact us. For security reasons, we require that requests for personal information are provided in writing. MBAuP will endeavour to provide you with this access unless MBAuP is required or authorised to refuse such access by the laws of Australia. All such enquiries should be directed to:
