ON THE ROAD AND ON YOUR WAY

When it comes to a warranty, Fuso leads the way, offering a full 5-year warranty* as standard on every new Fuso truck and Rosa bus in Australia. That's five years peace of mind knowing your vehicle is fully protected

In the unlikely event that something does go wrong, we'll have you back and on the road in no time because our genuine manufacturer's warranty covers the lot. A genuine manufacturer's warranty means you're guaranteed to receive genuine Fuso parts and service from an authorised Fuso dealer.

Our 5-year warranty is bumper to bumper. That means just about everything on your vehicle is included, all except tyres, custom-made rear body or non-approved aftermarket modifications and components that are subject to natural wear and tear in general use.

Why do we offer 5 years? Because it shows just how strongly we believe in the build and quality of our vehicles. So, you can be confident you can get the job done with a Fuso.
